

SODOM AND GOMORRAH

Run for the Hills

Activity

Lot and his daughters ran for the hills as they were instructed. Lot and his daughters were saved from the destruction of the city because they were faithful and obedient. In this activity the children will play a game where they bring Lot and his daughters to safety. Explain to the children that God will save the people who do right.

Materials

- Game pieces
- A game spinner or die
- Game board (included)

Procedure

- Print the game board out (preferably on cardstock paper)
- Using a spinner (color or number) or die – have each child take a turn and follow the instruction that's on the space.
- You can be creative with the game pieces.

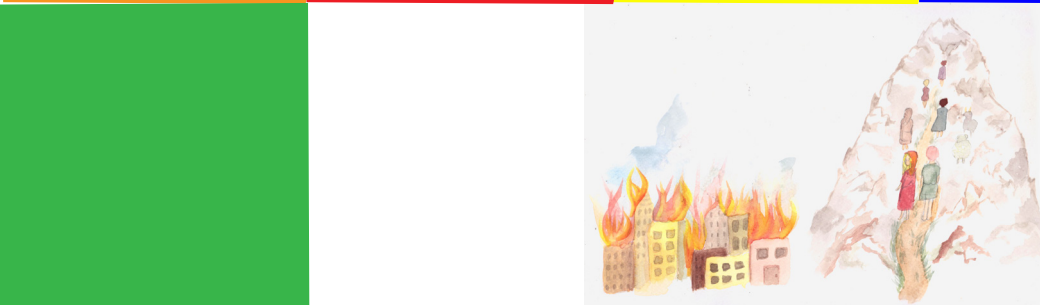

Explanation: Remind the children that God will save the people who do right.
