

GIVE US A KING

Trust the Heart

Activity

The Israelites chose Saul because he was tall and handsome and they thought that Saul would fight for them and protect them. God knew Saul's heart and tried to warn the people of Israel, but they did not listen. This activity serves as a reminder to trust God's judgment because he looks at the heart.

Procedure

1. Print the Trust the Heart activity on the following page.
2. Have the children color and decorate the heart.
3. Have the children cut the heart out and hang as a reminder that God looks at our hearts.
4. Tell the children that God that just like God knew king Saul's heart he also knows our hearts.

Explanation: Remind the children that we look at the outward appearance but God looks at the heart.
