

JESUS CHOOSES HIS FIRST DISCIPLES

If You Follow

Activity

When Jesus called his disciples he told them that if they follow him, their lives would be changed. They would go out and teach others about God, like Jesus did. Jesus also wants us to be his disciples and share his teachings with others. In this activity the children will make a craft that reminds them that Jesus calls us to follow him.

Materials

- Scissors
- Cardstock Paper
- Hole Punch
- Chenille Stem (Pipe Cleaner)

Procedure

1. Print and cut the "If You Follow" cutout on cardstock paper.
2. Using a hole punch, punch the three holes out of the sandals.
3. Cut a chenille stem (pipe cleaner) in half and tie the two top ends through the top hole and the bottom ends through the two bottom holes.
4. Tell the kids that even though Jesus is no longer on this earth, he still wants us to be his disciples by following his teachings and sharing them with others.

Explanation: Remind the children that Jesus calls us to follow him.

And he said to them,
"Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men."

And he said to them,
"Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men."