

E LIJAH AND THE WIDOW

What's the Facts?

Activity

There was a drought and many people in the land had little or no food. The fact that the widow of the story was unselfish and shared with Elijah first, God blessed her and her family for enough food to last the duration of the drought. In this activity the kids will play a game where they sort through the facts of this story.

Material

What's the Facts Cutouts
Scissors

Procedure

- Print and cut the What's the Facts cutouts on the following page.
- Read off the game strips with the statement about the story and have the children answer whether it is true or false. Place or tape them to the correct side.
- Talk about how God blessed the widow in this story because she was willing to trust God and share with others.

Explanation: Remind the children that God wants us to share with others.

Whats the Facts Game
✓ True	✗ False

Whats the Facts Game

 True

 False

Elijah had to find somewhere else to eat.

Elijah and the widow
listened to God.

The flour and oil did not run out.

The widow and her family went hungry every day.

The widow did not have enough bread to eat.

The widow told Elijah to go home.

The widow shared her bread with Elijah.

The widow did not have enough oil to make bread.

God took care of Elijah and the widow and her family.

There was a drought.