

JACOB'S LADDER

Jacob's Ladder Questions Activity

Activity

In this story, Jacob had a dream where God made a promise to be with Jacob and to bless Jacob and his future family. Jacob responded in worship to God. He poured oil on the rock where he slept and made a vow that if God protected him, he will be his God. This activity will test the children's understanding of the story. Remind the children that through worship we can respond to Gods promises.

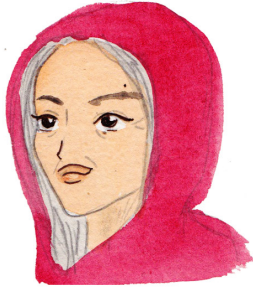

Procedure

- Using the Jacob's Ladder Questions Activity, have the children go through and answer each question.

Explanation: Remind the children that we can respond to Gods promises by worshipping him.
