

THE ESCAPE FROM EGYPT

What's the Story?

Activity

From the burning bush to the crossing of the Red Sea, God told Moses he would free his people and he did. In the midst of all that happened to the Egyptians, God kept his people safe. This activity will show the children that all throughout the story God looked after his people and protected them from the enemy.

Procedure

1. Draw an arrow to put the story in the correct sequence.
2. Have the children finish in the story by writing the correct answer.
3. Talk about how all throughout the story God protected his people from the the plagues and from their enemies.

Explanation: Remind the children that God protects us from our enemy.

Draw an arrow to put the story in the correct sequence. Have the children finish in the story by writing the correct answer.

Pharaoh did not listen and told Moses no. God sent a plague every time Pharaoh said no. God sent ..... plagues.

God talked to Moses from a burning ..... He asked Moses to tell Pharaoh to let his people go.

Pharaoh changed his mind and began chasing the Israelites. God opened the ..... and the Israelites walked across dry land to safety.

After the 10th plague Pharaoh told Moses and his people to.....

